

Domestic Violence and Abuse Co-ordinator – East Early Help Hub
(*Female) Equality Act 2010 Schedule 9 (Part 1) Occupational Requirement

Salary: NJC SCP 23 £27,741

37 hours per week

This post is currently funded until 31st March 2022 through the National Troubled Families Programme (in operation since 2011) and funding is reviewed on an annual cycle.

Early Help Hubs are at the heart of the City's strategic plan to transform early help. The hubs offer professionals an exciting opportunity to be a part of this innovative transformational change programme. Joining the East Hub, you will be part of a dynamic multi-disciplinary team to drive forward best practice, adding value to existing services within clusters and across the partnership to support a 'getting it right first time' for all children and families in Leeds. The Hub will work collaboratively with partners to ensure seamless, co-ordinated and effective early help and support.

The specialist in domestic violence and abuse will provide support and consultancy on case work, build expertise within the system and act as a link into existing provision. Supporting 'Think Family, Work Family' principles across agencies and the wider workforce and ensuring practitioners are supported to access the right services at the right time.
