

Fundraising for Behind Closed Doors

Help us to support people whose lives have been, or are, affected by domestic violence and abuse

Why we need your support

Our vision is for all people to live safely, free from fear and harm from domestic violence and abuse.

The fantastic energy and enthusiasm of supporters like you helps us raise funds and make a real difference in the lives of people who have been affected by domestic violence and abuse.

Top Tips

Create a Fundraising Page

Visit Virgin Money Giving, select your fundraising event, search and choose Behind Closed Doors as your chosen charity to support.

Shout about it!

Use social media to regularly share your fundraising activity and don't be afraid to keep asking for sponsorship.

Tell people what you're doing and why

Remember to tell people about Behind Closed Doors and what makes us different. Showing your passion for our cause can really inspire other people to help.

Use your resources

Some companies offer to match charity donations up to a certain amount. If you're an employee, ask if yours does!

Passing on Your Donations

If you've been fundraising using Virgin Money Giving, your work here is done! Any donations on your page will be sent directly to us.

Visit behind-closed-doors.org.uk/get-involved/future-changer/ to bank your money online.

“Behind Closed Doors didn't just help me through a difficult time, they gave me a direction in life. They gave me a future.”
